Reference

A. Mouth of Ashepoo from St. Helena Sound continued with Yellow to Green and Yellow through Fish Creek to D at the branch up to the intended Cut, Marked — with blue at E.

B. Fish Creek with both branches, from blue included, with Yellow must be the passage for Boats & larger Vessels. —

→ Shews the Channels at the entrance of South Edisto and Ashepoo Rivers. — F Racoon Island.

H Entrance of Daho River from Northo South Edisto at Wattis Cut & Block Island from Charleston So. Ca &c. &c. —

J long Horns Creek (commonly called Beef Island Creek) to J at Ashepoo River

X. Short Horns Creek, a safe passage for Vessels of an easy draught of Water

K. Otter Creek running through to Ashepoo River at A

Small Dots, represents Marsh

R. A narrow piece of Marsh not exceeding two hundred yards in width, through which an advantageous Cut could be made for the passage of Boats and for Vessels of burden one or two years after having been opend, the Sound would be avoided by this Cut.

E, blue mark for the intended Cut, when once opend Boats & other Vessels will avoid the Sound and the Very dangerous Banks of Otter & Pine Island and Cowpen and Bird Key breakers, the length of Cut Seven hundred yards, including small Creek Eight hundred and fifty

Dec. 1817 —— Wm C Meggett

91